4. How can I avail myself of these offers?

To enjoy the offers:

1. Contact or visit the participating travel partner through its eligible booking channel.
2. Select your preferred travel package or service.
3. Mention the Mastercard offer before confirming your booking.
4. Complete the eligible payment using your Mastercard.
5. Confirm the applicable discount and final payable amount with the merchant.

Booking channels and redemption procedures may vary by merchant.

5. Are these offers applicable to both domestic and international travel?

The campaign primarily focuses on international travel. However, selected partners also provide offers on domestic air tickets, hotels, resorts and other travel services.

Please refer to the individual merchant offers for details.

6. Can I enjoy discounts on international air tickets?

Yes. Several participating travel partners offer discounts on international air tickets, with savings varying by merchant, airline, route, fare type and booking conditions.

7. Are visa processing services included in the campaign?

Yes. Selected travel partners offer discounts on visa processing or service charges.

Discounts apply to eligible merchant service fees as specified in the individual offers. Government visa fees, embassy charges and other third-party fees may be excluded.

8. Are the offers available for all international destinations?

Destination eligibility depends on the participating travel partner and the package or service selected. Some offers apply to international packages generally, while others are destination-specific, such as Tour360's Bhutan travel package offer.

Cardholders should confirm availability with the respective travel partner before booking.

9. Can I combine these offers with other promotional discounts?

Combining Mastercard offers with other discounts, promotional codes or merchant campaigns is subject to the participating merchant's terms and conditions.

10. Are the discounts applicable to the total booking amount?

Not necessarily. Depending on the offer, discounts may apply to the base airfare, travel package price, service charge or other eligible components.

Taxes, surcharges, government fees and third-party charges may be excluded. The merchant will confirm the applicable discount calculation before payment.

11. Is there a maximum discount limit?

Discount caps, minimum booking values and other eligibility requirements may vary by merchant. Please check with the participating travel partner before completing your booking.

12. Can I book for my family or friends using my Mastercard?

Bookings for family members or other travelers may be permitted, subject to the participating merchant's booking conditions and applicable card payment requirements.

13. Can I cancel or reschedule a booking made under these offers?

Cancellation, refund and rescheduling requests will be governed by the respective merchant's terms, along with applicable airline, hotel or service-provider policies.

Additional charges may apply.

14. How long are these offers valid?

Offer validity may vary by merchant. Cardholders are advised to confirm the applicable promotional period before booking.

15. Who should I contact for booking assistance or offer-related queries?

For information on package availability, booking procedures, discount eligibility, cancellations or refunds, please contact the respective participating travel partner directly.

For card-related transaction issues, please contact your Mastercard issuing bank.
